

CURRICULUM - GRADE 3

Reading

Scribner Reading Series Skills and Various Chapter Books

Objective and Subjective Thinking

Main Ideas

Vocabulary

Critical Thinking

Predicting Outcomes

Cause/Effect

Character Traits

Sequence

Story Plot

Fantasy/Reality

Author's Point of View

Onomatopoeia

Literal and Figurative Language

Religion

We Believe, (Sadlier)

Jesus Gives Us The Church

We Are Members of The Church

The Church Leads Us In Worship

We Are Called To Discipleship

English

Language for Daily Use (Harcourt Brace Jovanovich)

The Writing Process

Sentence Structure

Parts of Speech

Study Skills – encyclopedia and dictionary research

Library Use

Writer's Workshop

Spelling

Words Most Needed: Plus Phonics, Dr. Fry

Mathematics

Mathematics (Scott Foresman and Addison Wesley)

Adding and Subtracting Three Digit Numbers

Time

Money

Measurement

Metrics

Decimals

Fractions

Place Value

Geometry

Multiplication and Division

Critical Thinking Skills

Handwriting (Zaner Bloser)

Cursive Letter Formation

Social Studies

Communities (Scott Foresman)

What defines a community

Types of communities

Reasons people move

Starting of communities

Community history

Communities at work

Celebrations

Different types of community environments

Science

Science (Harcourt)

Plants and Animals Interact

Food Chain

The Solar System

The Earth

Magnets

Electricity

Matter and Energy

Nutrition

In addition, the textbooks are supplemented with a variety of visual and audio aids, such as manipulative, and tapes.

Typing

Type To Learn

The objective is to have students be able to begin to become familiar with the keyboard and learn to not be dependent on looking at the keys.